SCSO Makes Arrest in Identity Theft, Forgery Case

On 11/24/2013, Jeremy Cornett, a former employee of Meadows Construction pumped fuel into his personal vehicle at the Shell station on Hacks Cross and Hwy 385. He then charged it to the Meadows charge at the store and signed the name of a current employee who is an authorized user on the account. Total losses were in the amount of $339.27.

When his former supervisor was notified, he viewed the video and recognized Cornett as the responsible person. Jeremy Cornett is already in custody for two counts of Auto Burglary and is now additionally charged with Identity Theft, Forgery and Theft of Property.
